

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS OVERSIGHT

1. Subchapter 80 is amended to read:

Subchapter 80. ~~Payment Instruments~~ Money Transmission

2. Section 80.1 is amended to read:

§ 80.1. Scope.

(a) This Subchapter contains regulations relating to ~~payment instruments~~ money transmission.

(b) This Article contains general provisions relating to this Subchapter. The succeeding articles of this Subchapter contain regulations relating to various subjects regarding ~~payment instruments~~ money transmission.

(c) This Subarticle contains regulations relating to the citation and construction of this Subchapter. Subarticle 2 (commencing with Section 80.100) of this Article contains regulations relating to definitions.

Note: Authority cited: Sections ~~33202~~ 321 and 334, Financial Code. Reference: Division ~~16~~ 1.2, Financial Code.

3. Section 80.2 is amended to read:

§ 80.2. Citation.

(a) This Subchapter shall be known and may be cited as the “~~Payment Instruments~~ Money Transmission Regulations.”

(b) The first unit of the number of each section in this Subchapter is “80.” However, in citing a section of this Subchapter, a person may omit the first unit of the number of such section if it is clear that such person is referring to a section of this Subchapter.

Note: Authority cited: Sections ~~33202~~ 321 and 334, Financial Code. Reference: Division ~~46~~ 1.2, Financial Code.

4. Section 80.3 is amended to read:

§ 80.3. Unsafe and Unsound Acts.

(a) Any act which is designated in this Subchapter as an “unsafe and unsound act” is an act which, in the usual or typical circumstances encountered, constitutes an unsafe and unsound act within the meaning of the ~~Payment Instruments Law~~ Money Transmission Act. However, it is impossible to foresee or to provide for all the varying circumstances which may arise in a particular case. Also, the acts designated in this Subchapter as “unsafe and unsound acts” are not intended to constitute a complete compilation of all the acts which constitute unsafe or unsound acts within the meaning of the ~~Payment Instruments Law~~ Money Transmission Act. Therefore, the Commissioner may, if and when warranted in any particular case, upon application or on the Commissioner's own initiative, decide that in such case an act which is designated in this Subchapter as an “unsafe and unsound act” does not constitute an unsafe or unsound act within the meaning of the ~~Payment Instruments Law~~ Money Transmission Act. Also, the Commissioner may decide that an act which is not designated in this Subchapter as an “unsafe and unsound act” constitutes an unsafe or unsound act within the meaning of the ~~Payment Instruments Law~~ Money Transmission Act.

(b) Subject to the qualifications set forth in Subdivision (a) of this Section, whenever a licensee commits any act which is designated in this Subchapter as an “unsafe and unsound act,” such licensee shall be deemed:

(1) To be transacting and conducting its business in an unsafe and unsound manner within the meaning of the ~~Payment Instruments Law~~ Money Transmission Act; and

(2) If and to the extent that such act affects the condition of the licensee, to be in an unsafe and unsound condition within the meaning of ~~Payment Instruments Law~~ Money Transmission Act.

Note: Authority cited: Sections ~~33202~~ 321 and 334, Financial Code. Reference: Division ~~46~~ 1.2, Financial Code.

5. Section 80.4 is amended to read:

§ 80.4. References to Corporations or Limited Liability Companies.

In this Subchapter, unless otherwise expressly provided, references to corporations or limited liability companies or to aspects of corporations or limited liability companies apply to all types of corporations or limited liability companies, whether for profit, nonprofit, or of any other type. For the sake of convenience, references in this Subchapter to corporations or limited liability companies and to aspects of corporations or limited liability companies are set forth in terms appropriate to corporations or limited liability companies for profit. However, whenever any reference in this Subchapter to a corporation or limited liability company or to an aspect of a corporation or limited liability company is applicable to a type of corporation or limited liability company other than a corporation or limited liability company for profit, if the term of such reference is not appropriate to such type of corporation or limited liability company, the term of the reference shall be construed to be the closest equivalent term of reference appropriate to the type of corporation or limited liability company.

~~(a) Any person which is exempted from the Payment Instruments Law~~ Money Transmission Act by Section 80.3002(a) and (b) of this Chapter shall be deemed to be a person referred to in Financial Code Section ~~33100(a)~~ 2011, ~~and the provision of Section 80.3002(a) of this Chapter applicable to such person shall be deemed to be the paragraph of Financial Code Section 33100(a) applicable to the person.~~

~~(b) Any person which is exempted from the Payment Instruments Law by order of the Commissioner (other than a person exempted only as a California agent of a person so exempted) shall be deemed to be a person referred to in Financial Code Section 33100(a), and any provision of such order which specifies or limits such person's activities with respect to selling payment instruments shall be deemed to be the paragraph of Financial Code Section 33100(a) applicable to the person.~~

Note: Authority cited: Sections ~~33202~~ 321 and 334, Financial Code. Reference: Sections ~~33102, 33401, and 34115~~ 2011, Financial Code.

50. Section 80.3002 is amended to read:

§ 80.3002. Exemptions.

(a) The Commissioner finds that exempting the persons and transactions specified in the subdivisions (a) of this Section from the ~~Payment Instruments Law~~ Money Transmission Act is in the public interest and that the regulation of such persons and transactions is not necessary for the purposes of the ~~Payment Instruments Law~~ Money Transmission Act. Accordingly, in addition to the persons exempt pursuant to Financial Code Section 2010, the Commissioner exempts ~~the persons and transactions specified in the subdivisions of this Section~~ from the ~~Payment Instruments Law~~. Money Transmission Act:

(1) The sale of a money transmission service or product of a person exempt pursuant to Financial Code Section 2010;

(2) A public benefit nonprofit which has received recognition of tax exemption under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3);

(3) An escrow agent licensed under the Escrow Law (Financial Code Section 17000 et seq.), only when acting as an escrow agent or Internet escrow agent as those terms are defined in Financial Code Sections 17004 and 17004.5, respectively; and

(4) a nonprofit community service organization that meets all of the criteria in Financial Code Section 12104 of the Check Sellers, Bill Payers and Proraters Law.

~~(a) Any bank organized under the laws of a foreign nation which maintains a federal agency (as defined in Section 1(b)(5) of the International Banking Act of 1978) or federal branch (as defined in Section 1(b)(6) of the International Banking Act of 1978) in the State of California, when selling any foreign currency payment instrument which is issued by such bank and which is not designated on its face by the term “money order” or “travelers check” or by any similar term.~~

~~(b) Any California agent of any person referred to in Subdivision (a) of this Section, when selling any payment instrument which is issued by such person and which such person is permitted to sell under the provisions of Subdivision (a) applicable to such person.~~

(b) As an administrative standard, the Commissioner may consider the following factors in determining whether a person or transaction or class of persons or transactions is exempt from all or part of the Money Transmission Act:

(1) Whether the person is licensed by a government agency and is examined by that licensing government agency in a manner satisfactory to the Commissioner for factors such as:

(A) The nature and volume of the projected or established business.

(B) The amount, nature, quality, and liquidity of its assets.

(C) The amount and nature of its liabilities.

(D) The amount of earnings and income.

(E) The quality of its operations.

(F) The quality of its management.

(2) Whether the transmission activity is necessary and incidental to the performance of the person's business transactions.

(3) The risk and potential harm of the proposed business activities to persons located in California.

(4) The actual or projected nature and volume of transactions with persons located in California.

(5) Other factors as may in the opinion of the Commissioner be relevant.

(c) To apply for an exemption under Financial Code Section 2011, the applicant shall submit a letter to the Commissioner in care of the Legal Division, 1515 K Street, Suite 200, Sacramento, CA 95814, which shall state or contain all of the following:

(1) Statement that the letter is a request for an order of exemption pursuant to Financial Code Section 2011.

(2) The legal name and business address of the applicant and any fictitious or trade name used by the applicant in conducting its business.

(3) A description of the applicant's business.

(4) A description of the structure or organization of the applicant, including any parent or subsidiary of the applicant.

(5) A description of the flow of funds, if applicable, among the sender of money or monetary value, the recipient of money or monetary value, the applicant, and any other relevant persons, and indicating whether such money or monetary value is held in depository accounts; how such depository accounts are titled; and which entities control the withdrawal of money or monetary value from such depository accounts. Attach relevant documents such as copies of contracts with financial institutions, terms of service, user agreements, and receipts which relate to how money or monetary value is transferred among the sender, the recipient, the applicant, and other relevant persons.

(6) The information called for in subdivision (b), if applicable.

(7) An objective legal analysis with a reasoned conclusion supporting a claim for an exemption. Such analysis shall be based on applicable law and regulations, any previous opinions issued by the Commissioner, state and federal court decisions, and other similar documents.

(8) Any other information the Commissioner requires with respect to the applicant.

(d) The commissioner may waive any of the information required under subdivision (c) or permit an applicant to submit other information instead of the required information.

108. Section 80.5301 is amended to read:

§ 80.5301. Ownership -Ability to Transfer.

(a) For purposes of Financial Code Section ~~33561~~ 2084(a)(3), a licensee shall not be deemed to be able freely to otherwise transfer an eligible security which consists of a deposit in a bank or savings and loan association unless such licensee is able freely to withdraw such deposit. However, if the deposit is a savings or time deposit and is subject to restrictions on withdrawal usually imposed on a savings or time deposit, as the case may be, the licensee shall not, on account of such restrictions, be deemed unable freely to withdraw the deposit.

(b) For purposes of Financial Code Section ~~33561~~ 2084(a)(3), a licensee shall not be deemed to be able freely to negotiate, assign, or otherwise transfer an eligible security if any negotiation, assignment, or other transfer of such eligible security would constitute a breach or event of default by such licensee or by any affiliate of the licensee under any contract, obligation, note, or other security issued by the licensee or by any affiliate of the licensee. For example, for purposes of Financial Code Section ~~33561~~ 2084 (a)(3), a licensee shall not be deemed to be able freely to negotiate, assign, or otherwise transfer an eligible security which consists of a deposit in a bank if such licensee's failure to maintain such deposit would constitute a breach of a provision for compensating balances set forth in a loan contract between such bank and the licensee or a parent of the licensee.

112. Section 80.5304.1 is adopted to read:

§ 80.5304.1. Eligible Securities.

(a) Financial Code Section 2082(b)(12) provides that “any receivable owed by a bank and resulting from an automated clearinghouse, debit, or credit-funded transmission” is a United States currency eligible security. For purposes of this subarticle, the following terms shall apply:

(1) A receivable owed by a bank and resulting from an automated clearinghouse transmission will be termed an "ACH Receivable."

(2) A receivable owed by a bank and resulting from a credit-funded transmission will be termed a "Credit Card Receivable."

(3) A receivable owed by a bank and resulting from a debit funded transmission will be termed a "Debit Card Receivable."

(b) The terms ACH Receivables, Credit Card Receivables, and Debit Card Receivables are defined at §80.5305.

Note: Authority cited: Sections 2082 and 2086, Financial Code. Reference: Sections 2082 and 2086, Financial Code.

113. Section 80.5305 is adopted to read:

§ 80.5305. Computation of Aggregate Value of Eligible Securities.

(a) For purposes of this section:

(1) “Automated Clearing House (ACH) Receivables” are amounts debited from a customer’s depository account or ACH credits initiated by the customer through the ACH, which are for the purchase or payment of money transmission products and services.

(2) “Credit Card Receivables” are amounts owed by a licensee's merchant acquirer and arising from the licensee's submission of credit card transactions for settlement by the merchant acquirer for the purchase or payment of money transmission products and services.

(3) “Debit Card Receivables” are amounts owed by a licensee's merchant acquirer and arising from the licensee's submission of debit or pre-paid card transactions for settlement by the merchant acquirer for the purchase or payment of money transmission products and services.

(4) “Merchant acquirer” means an acquiring bank or its designated processor who forwards the transaction information to the respective credit card associations for authorization, clearing, and settlement. The acquiring bank must remain fully liable for payment to the licensee if the designated processor fails to settle with the licensee.

(b) In computing for purposes of Section 2082 of the Financial Code the aggregate value of ACH Receivables, Credit Card Receivables, and Debit Card Receivables owned by a licensee, the following shall be excluded:

(1) That portion of the aggregate value of ACH Receivables, Credit Card Receivables, and Debit Card Receivables that have been outstanding for more than 10 business days.

(c) ACH Receivables must be

(1) due from U.S. national or state-chartered depository institutions, and

(2) current and not past due or otherwise doubtful of collection;

(d) Credit Card Receivables must be current and not past due or otherwise doubtful of collection;

(e) Debit Card Receivables must be current and not past due or otherwise doubtful of collection; and

(f) Receivables may be reported by the licensee as

(1) cash, cash items, or cash in transit or

(2) as ACH, Credit Card, or Debit Card Receivables or due from banks on the licensee's balance sheet, or in any other manner approved by the Commissioner.

NOTICE OF FINGERPRINT PROCESSING REQUIREMENTS
UNDER THE CALIFORNIA MONEY TRANSMISSION ACT

The Applicant Live Scan program is a system for the electronic submission of fingerprints and the subsequent automated background check and response. The response time from the Department of Justice when using the Applicant Live Scan program is faster with fewer rejections.

The applicant should complete Department of Justice Form BCIA 8016, Request for Live Scan Service. The applicant should indicate Money Transmitter License under “Type of Application.” The applicant must take the three-part form to a Live Scan location to have their fingerprints taken by the operator. The applicant’s fingerprints will be transmitted electronically to the Department of Justice for processing. The applicant will be required to pay the fees charged by the Department of Justice for processing the fingerprints directly to the Live Scan operator.

Please go to the Attorney General’s website at:

<http://caag.state.ca.us/fingerprints/publications/contact.html> for current information concerning the location of live scan terminals. You may also call the Department’s Call center at (866) 275-2677 for information on a Live Scan location.

1. Please submit the following when applying for a license under the California Money Transmission Act, in order to comply with the fingerprint processing requirements of Financial Code Sections 379 and 2032.

- a. Processing fee at the current rate charged by the California Department of Justice for each form submitted.
- b. D.O.J. Form BCIA 8016, “Requesting Agency Copy” as proof of Live Scan completion.

2. Fingerprint information by Live Scan and the cost of fingerprint processing are to be submitted for the following persons:

- a. The applicant;
- b. Executive Officers and directors of the applicant;
- c. Control persons of the applicant;
- d. Executive Officers and directors of each control person of the applicant;
- e. The general partners, officers, directors and person owning or controlling, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of the outstanding interests or equity securities of the applicant;
and
- f. Other key persons involved, such as managers/members, trustees, any other officers with direct responsibility for the conduct of applicant’s money transmission activities, and the persons who will be in charge of the place of business.

3. NO LICENSE WILL BE ISSUED UNTIL CLEARANCE IS RECEIVED FOR ALL PERSONS REQUIRED TO SUBMIT FINGERPRINT INFORMATION UNDER THE CALIFORNIA MONEY TRANSMISSION ACT.

4. All application and fingerprint information is to be submitted to the Department’s San Francisco office at:

Department of Business Oversight

45 Fremont Street, Suite 1700

San Francisco, CA 94105-2219
